Event Report

The workshop commenced at 10.30am with a warm welcome and an introduction to the facilitators and a small session about the American Centre and US Consulate. The session was divided into multiple segments, each focusing on different aspects of theatre arts. The workshop was conducted by Sunandha an actor, a playwright, and featured renowned theatre artists and instructors who guided the attendees through various aspects of acting, stage presence, and performance techniques. Participants engaged in interactive activities to build camaraderie and ease stage anxiety. Group exercises encouraged communication and trust among attendees. The instructors introduced fundamental acting techniques such as the Stanislavski Method and improvisation. Participants practiced voice modulation, diction, and articulation to improve stage presence. Experts demonstrated how body movements, facial expressions, and gestures contribute to an impactful performance. Participants performed short skits to implement learned techniques. The workshop witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, aspiring actors, and theatre enthusiasts. The interactive format ensured active involvement, and the structured exercises helped participants build confidence and refine their performance abilities. The theatre workshop was a resounding success, achieving its objective of fostering artistic expression and skill development. Participants expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to learn from experienced mentors. The event concluded with certificates of participation and a group photograph, marking the end of a memorable and enriching experience.
