TN TALK - DISASTER MANAGEMENT-PROGRAMME REPORT

The TN Talk - Disaster Management session was successfully conducted on March 12, 2025 (Wednesday) at 4:00 PM at the Auditorium, Anna Centenary Library, Kotturpuram. The event was organized by Anna Centenary Library to create awareness about disaster management strategies and preparedness.

The session was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. V. Thirupugazh, IAS (Retd.), a distinguished expert in disaster management, who shared his insights on the significance of preparedness and resilience in mitigating disasters. Dr. Thirupugazh elaborated on disaster preparedness, risk assessment, and recovery mechanisms, providing valuable insights into real-life case studies. An interactive Q&A session allowed participants to discuss various aspects of disaster response and community resilience. The session emphasized the role of libraries as knowledge hubs in promoting disaster awareness.

The event was highly informative and received positive feedback from attendees. It successfully achieved its objective of educating participants on the importance of disaster management and preparedness.

A total of 29 participants actively engaged in the session, contributing to meaningful discussions on disaster management strategies.
