A REPORT ON THE LIBRARY WEEK CELEBRATION

The Department of Library and the National Service Scheme of Agurchand Manmull Jain College, Meenambakkam, Chennai-61, celebrated National Library Week from 14.11.2002- 20.11.2022.

With the motto to get back to the books and to free oneself from the grips of gadgets, the week was an initiative to promote reading awareness. The event began with the discussions and meetings of the librarians of shift 1, shift 2, and the NSS program officers with the management and the principal to obtain permission. The program agenda was then chalked out in the form of a letter submitted for the same. After the approval of the competent authorities, the invite and poster were prepared and circulated. Circular detailing the same was sent to the staff and students.

The following were the events organized to commemorate National Library Week:

1. Online Quiz
2. Poster Making.
3. Book Review.
4. Mass Reading Day.

The events were conducted online mode to facilitate students' participation during their exams. The following are the details of the competitions and the respective prize winners.

In the Online timed Quiz conducted between 14th to 16th November 2022.

538 students participated both from Shift 1 and Shift 2. E-certificates were mailed to the successful quizzers.

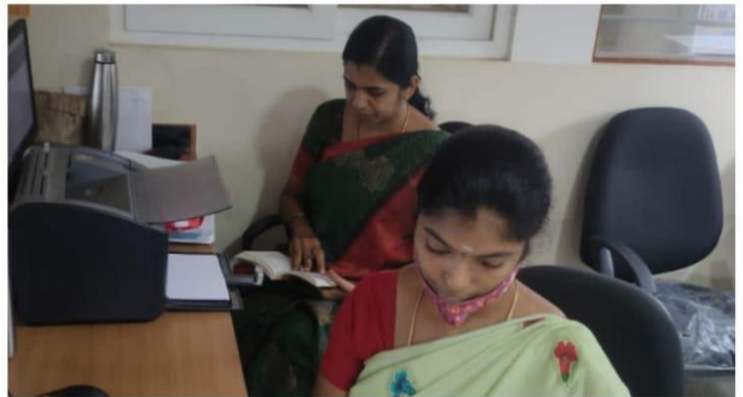

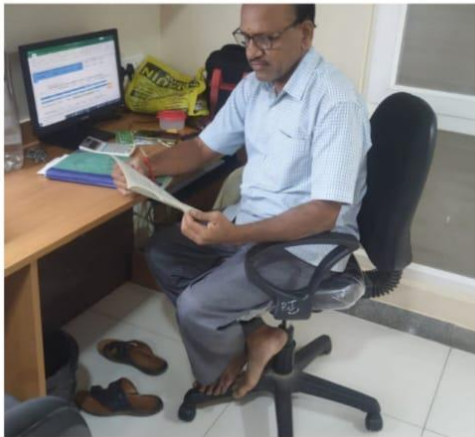

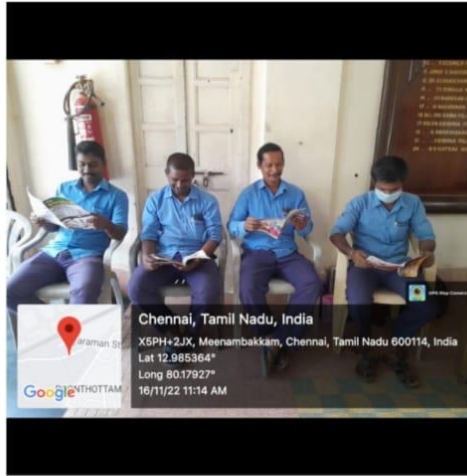

Poster-making competition with a theme to promote reading awareness and the significance of the library. 12 students from both streams participated. In which D.Sankaranarayanan of I M.com, M.Kannika of I B.A. English and I.Swathy of I B.Com CS won from Shift 1 won the three prizes respectively. While V.Varun B.A CRM batch-I, Naisiya B.Com A&F batch- II and B.Dilip Kumar B.Com A&F batch II bagged the first two prizes respectively.

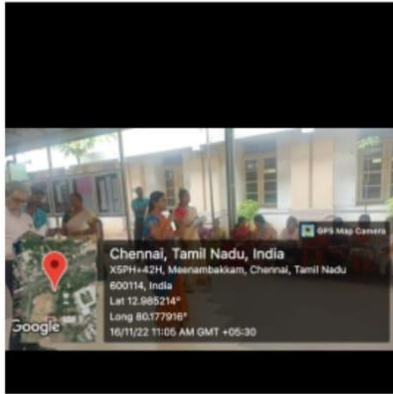

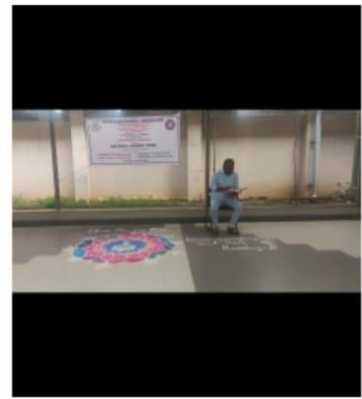

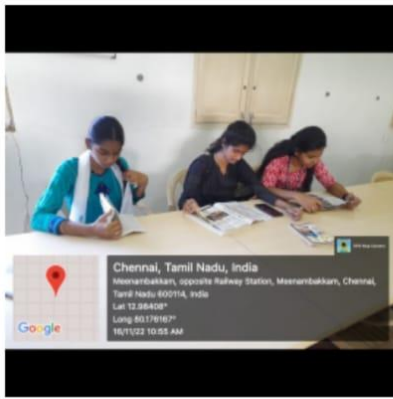

In Book Review, students were instructed to send a recorded video reviewing their favourite book, four students registered from both the streams. A.Jubin Paramchand of B.A. CRM batch I and B.Dilip Kumar B.Com A&F batch II won the first two prizes respectively. In Shift 1, the first and second prizes are awarded to Gopikrishna, I M.Sc., Chemistry and Mohammed , I B.Sc., Physics respectively.

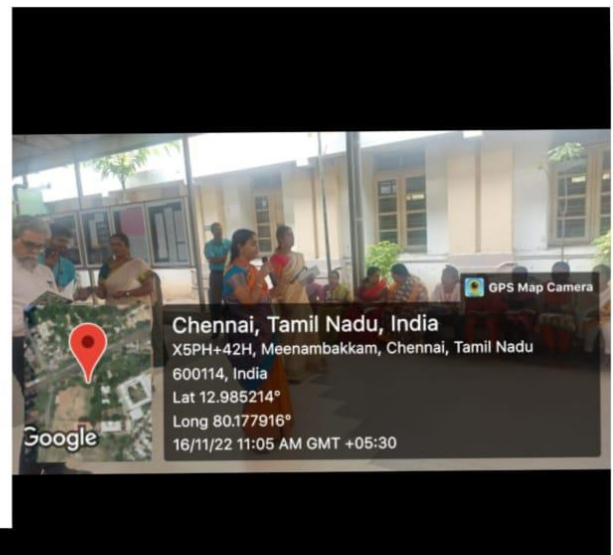

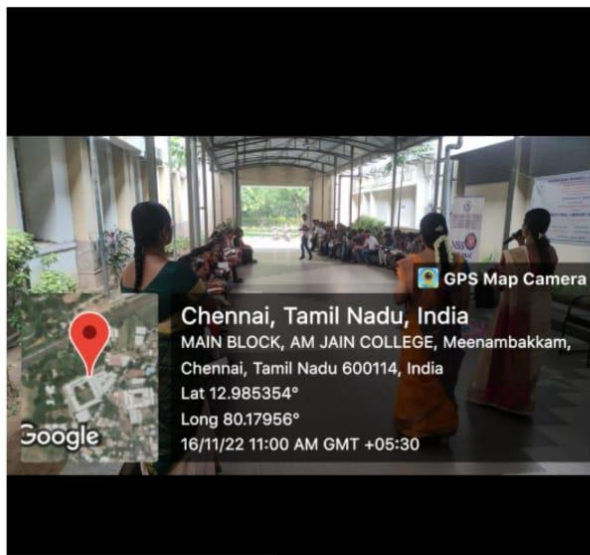

Mass Reading Day was observed on 16.11.2022 which invited enthusiastic participation from both streams. All AMJCians dropped everything and started reading the books in their hands, for ten minutes to propagate getting back to the books and enhance their reading skills. Students assembled at the new block entrance and participated in the token mass reading. The Principal and Chairman of NSS of our college Dr.N.Venkataramanan began this reading session by reading out the lines regarding the significance of reading as a daily habit. Heads of various departments, teaching staff, and non-teaching staff of both streams actively read from their seats and recorded their participation. NSS program officer Mrs.Mathangi.G, welcomed the gathering, and Dr.R.Sujatha, the Librarian, spoke about the use of libraries in shaping reading habits.

Overall, it was a purposeful and motivational program that marked the National Library week celebrations of Agurchand Manmull Jain College. The Librarians of both the shifts and the NSS program officers are immensely thankful for the support of the management, administration, Principal, teaching, and non-teaching staff and students for making this a great success.
